

Raymond "Dick" Villiers CdeG.

Dick Villiers passed away in Adelaide on Saturday, 14 April, 2013.
The funeral was held on Wednesday, 17 April, 2013.

Dick was a founding member of the NMBVAA Inc in South Australia in 1995. Serving as a Royal Marine Commando in WW2, Dick was awarded the Croix de Guerre by General De Gaulle after a solo mission into occupied France to eliminate a collaborator who was giving up French Underground members to the Nazis.

After the war, Dick served with the Malayan Police Special Branch during the Malayan Emergency, sometimes undercover, to counter communist cells in the southern states on the Peninsula.

Selamat jalan mate.
